

How to get to the Willibrordushuis:

It is difficult to get to the Willibrordushuis as part of the road is closed during the day. Parking is also difficult but can be done free from Friday 17:00 on Veendijk and Noordwal (excluding the square!). Your best option would probably be to come by public transport.

St John & St Philip, The Hague

Men's retreat 2011

SPEAKER: Pastor Jeff Hancock

17 & 18 February 2012

THE 2012 ST JOHN AND ST PHILIP
MEN'S RETREAT
WILL BE HELD AT

WILLIBRORDUSHUIS
OUDE MOLSTRAAT 35
2513 BA THE HAGUE

FRIDAY 17 FEBRUARY 2012 AS OF 17:00
TILL 16:00 ON SATURDAY 18 FEBRUARY 2012

The facilities at the Willibrordushuis are such that we have an excellent opportunity to spend time together to study, to listen to God's Word, and the opportunity for quiet time.

We hope that many of the men will be able to attend, as there are many rooms available at the inn!

This year our speaker will be Pastor Jeff Hancock, of Crossroads, The Hague.

Jeff grew up in South Carolina (US). Growing up, he developed a passion for history and a hunger to find, and experience the great truths of life and God. In high school, he had a personal encounter with God that led him to begin to pursue some form of ministry as his life work. He and his wife Heather attended seminary in the Boston, Massachusetts area and have been in pastoral ministry since then. He came to Crossroads in August 2010.

The cost for the retreat will be € 50.00. This includes bed linen, an evening meal on Friday, and breakfast and lunch on Saturday.

It is possible to use towels (€ 5) from the Willibrordushuis, but we would like to suggest that you bring your own.

Of course, you should also bring a Bible, and pen & paper in case you want to make notes...

To register, please inform the Church office or tell Jan Tiesema in the usual way.
