SIGN UP FOR THE ELECTORAL ROLL!

ARE YOU:

- Baptized and 16 years or older.
- A member of an Anglican Church or any other Church that subscribes to the doctrine of the Trinity.
- Regularly (once a month) worshipping here on Sunday at 0900 or 1030 for the last 6 months.

THEN WE ASK YOU TO SIGN UP FOR THE ROLL, BECAUSE:

- Only in this way can we keep track of those who consider themselves connected to our church and community and see how our church is developing.
- The number on the Roll is important for our participation in the life of the Diocese, as it determines our number of representatives and our dues.
- It allows you to serve the Church in various roles, such as steward, council member, archdeaconry representative or churchwarden; and you are allowed to elect them, though you are not required to do so;
- If you serve as a volunteer in our Church in any way – and your name is not yet on the Roll – we would especially like to ask you to consider putting your name on the Roll.
- You will receive a full information pack on the life of our Church for the Annual General Meeting; and regular updates on what happens in Council.

THE ONLY THING YOU NEED TO DO, IS:

- Fill in the Electoral Roll Form below. Don't forget to sign it.
- Send the form in before Mar 26, 2023 by post (Address below), or by email to the Electoral Roll Officer (scanned with signature).

ON BEHALF OF THE WHOLE CHURCH COUNCIL

Sheila Kooijman, Electoral Roll Officer

Notes

1. The only churches at present in communion with the Church of England are other Anglican Churches and certain foreign Churches.
2. Membership of the Electoral Roll is also open to members in good standing of a Church not in communion with the Church of England which subscribes to the doctrine of the Holy Trinity where those members are also prepared to declare themselves to be members of the Church of England.
3. Every six years a new roll is prepared and those on the previous roll are informed so that they can re-apply. If you are not resident but were on the roll as an habitual worshipper and have been prevented by sickness or absence or other essential reason from worshipping for the past six months, you may write "would" before "have habitually attended" on the form and add "but was prevented from doing so because" and then state the reason.

Many chaplaincies enjoy active participation of individuals in church life from 'swallows' – those who spend part of their time back in the UK/elsewhere. Accordingly, it is customary to adopt a generous interpretation of the six month rule.
4. If you have any problems over this form, please approach the clergy or lay people responsible for the church, who will be pleased to help you.

You do not have to provide an email address on this Form. If you do provide one, the Chaplaincy Council and the electoral roll officer are entitled to use that email address to communicate with you in connection with the maintenance or revision of the Roll or the preparation of a new Roll or with elections to or membership of the Council.

The Church Representation Rules impose certain requirements for your name and address to be given to a third party, such as the diocesan electoral registration officer, who may require it in connection with elections to or membership of a deanery synod, diocesan synod or the House of Laity of the General Synod. If you provide an email address on this Form, it will be given to the third party along with your postal address.

A third party to whom your name and address have been given under the Church Representation Rules is in certain cases required by the Rules to pass them on to another person, such as the presiding officer in a synodical election. If you provide an email address on this Form, that email address will be given to the other person along with your postal address.

Any person to whom your email address or other personal data is given under the Church Representation Rules is required by those Rules to hold the data securely. Furthermore, if you do provide an email address on this Form, that does not give anybody the right to use it for any purpose other than those permitted by the Rules; so it cannot, for example, be used for social matters or fund-raising. Those permissions have to be granted in a process other than Electoral Roll enrolment in accordance with the chaplaincy privacy policy.

The roll is published after each annual revision and after the preparation of a new roll. The published roll will include your name (as well as the name of every other person on the roll) but none of your other personal data (as defined by the Data Protection law in place) and will be made public as a result of your inclusion on the roll.

Please refer to the Privacy Notice on the Chaplaincy Website for further information about our use of data.
